    a. Must be placed into 300 level Chinese or above to be eligible for the language electives

Important Notes:

- Courses below may not be available each term. These courses reflect what has been available in the past and the equivalencies shown indicate how courses have transferred back to IU. Please check the IES Beijing Contemporary China & Chinese Language website for most up-to-date course offerings.
- Undistributed 100-level (-OS 100) courses have not yet been evaluated by an IUB department. Courses with a DEPT–OS 100 equivalent may count towards overall credits to graduate. However, students may submit the course materials to that department for evaluation towards a specific credit either before or after studying abroad.
- A course listed as OS200/300/400, the academic department has evaluated the course. Be in touch with the academic department to determine how course may fulfill degree requirements.
- Some courses may carry pre-requisites; be sure to check the program's site to determine eligibility.
- Students should inquire with ksabroad@indiana.edu about business credit.
- IU students who take Mandarin Chinese will need to arrange a placement exam upon completion of the program to determine the next appropriate Chinese language course through the East Asian Languages & Cultures department.
