Minoritity Scholarships

IUB minority students abroad are 22.9% of the total which reflects the 22% IUB campus population. More significantly the number of African American students abroad continues to increase. Overseas Study works with diversity offices to convey that study abroad opportunities are available to all qualified students and that there is funding available for them.

The Office of Diversity, Equity and Multicultural Affairs gave $75K in grant funding in 2019-20 to 48 students going abroad at an average of $1,500 each.

Unit Support

IUB schools typically support study abroad through special scholarships but the cancellation of their spring break and summer programs in 2019-20 resulted in much lower financial support than in previous years. O'Neill SPEA made available $22K in dedicated scholarships to 20 students accepted to their programs abroad, the Media School contributed $15K towards 18 students although the international component of their course was cancelled and Kelley provided a total of $738K in scholarships to 259 students. 22 students enrolled in IU language flagship programs abroad received $104K. Other departments are increasingly offering special study abroad scholarships as well.
