

The DIS fees (OVST Provider instructional fee and OVST provider miscellaneous fee) includes academic fees, room and board, study trips, books, local transportation, residence permit, and medical insurance. The miscellaneous provider fee includes the non-instructional costs of the program, such as housing and health insurance. In late December the Bloomington bursar will send an e-mail notifying you that your statement is available for viewing and printing from the web through IU Bursar Pay. Your $500 prepayment and any IUB scholarships or loans will be listed as credits there.

The IU Service fee underwrites the operation of the Office of Overseas Study.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES AND ADVICE FOR OVERSEAS STUDY IN SPRING 2023

- Will study abroad programs be running in Spring 2023, considering the COVID-19 pandemic?
 - While planning to continue with spring 2023 semester-long programs, the Office of Overseas Study continues to closely monitor the COVID-19 pandemic and follow guidance from national and international organizations, such as World Health Organization, Centers for Disease Control, and the U.S. Department of State. We also are in touch with our study abroad partners and providers to determine if they are able to host IU students in spring 2023.
- I have been accepted to a spring 2023 study abroad program. If I decide not to go, can I get my $500 prepayment back? Can I defer to a future semester?
 - Generally, students who withdraw from a spring 2023 program at least 14 days prior to the program start date or whose program is cancelled will be refunded their $500 prepayment. Students interested in deferring to a future semester (and who are still eligible for that semester) should speak with their study abroad advisor.
- Should I purchase an air ticket for travel to my program destination for Spring 2023?
 - No. Students are advised to avoid incurring any financial commitments until 60 days prior to program start date.
- If I withdraw from my Spring 2023 program, what happens to any study abroad scholarships I received?
 - Students should not expect to receive any study abroad-related scholarships, if their program abroad is cancelled.
- What should I do about housing at IU, if my Spring 2023 program gets cancelled?
 - Students should consult IU Classifieds or be in touch with Residential Programs and Services about spring housing options.
