

The IU fees cover academic fees, housing, local transportation, and health insurance during the program dates. Meals during the days at the Ecolodge San Louis, the La Selva field station, and at Mirador de Quetzales are included. You will pay for your own meals during the other days of the program.

In late December you will be notified by the Bloomington Bursar via e-mail that your statement is available for viewing from the web through IU Bursar Pay. The $500 prepayment and any applicable IUB financial aid will be reflected as credit. In order for your family to take advantage of government tax-saver benefit plans, your total program fee is expressed as two separate charges on the Bursar’s invoice. The fees listed as “OVST Fees - (IU admin prog)” are the instructional fees that qualify as educational expenses. Those listed as “OVST Miscellaneous charges” include non-instructional costs of the program, such as health insurance, housing, some meals and travel within Costa Rica.

If your financial assistance is greater than the IU fees, the difference will be refunded to you. Students should arrange to have the funds deposited into a U.S. bank account (see the Bursar website <http://bursar.indiana.edu>). If for some reason direct deposit is not an option, instruct the Bursar to mail a check to your permanent address where someone is authorized to open your mail and deposit the check into your bank account.

IU Withdrawal and Refund Policy

Students who withdraw from IU administered programs are responsible for non-recoverable costs. Your Bursar account will be assessed an additional charge to cover any/all amounts that Overseas Study has committed or paid on your behalf and are non-recoverable at the time of withdrawal, possibly including housing, meals, transportation, and faculty or staff compensation.
