SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES AND ADVICE FOR OVERSEAS STUDY IN SUMMER 2022

- Will study abroad programs be running in Summer 2022, considering the COVID-19 pandemic?
  - While planning to continue with Summer 2022 programs, the Office of Overseas Study continues to closely monitor the COVID-19 pandemic and follow guidance from national and international organizations, such as World Health Organization, Centers for Disease Control, and the U.S. Department of State. We also are in touch with our study abroad partners and providers to determine if they are able to host IU students in Summer 2022.

- I have been accepted to a Summer 2022 study abroad program. If I decide not to go, can I get my $500 prepayment back? Can I defer to a future term?
  - Generally, students who withdraw from a Summer 2022 program at least 14 days prior to the program start date or whose program is cancelled will be refunded their $500 prepayment, but these details vary by program. Please check the details of your program's withdrawal and refund policy carefully. Students interested in deferring to a future term (and who are still eligible for that term) should speak with their study abroad advisor.

- Should I purchase an air ticket for travel to my program destination for Summer 2022?
  - No. Students are advised to avoid incurring any financial commitments until 60 days prior to program start date.

- If I withdraw from my Summer 2022 program, what happens to any study abroad scholarships I received?
  - Students should not expect to receive any study abroad-related scholarships, if their program abroad is cancelled.

The total fixed fee includes CES academic fees, shared housing (C-single), textbooks, and health insurance valid during the program dates. In late April you will be notified by the Bloomington Bursar via e-mail that your statement is available for viewing from the web through IU Bursar Pay. The $500 prepayment and any applicable IUB financial aid will be reflected as credit. The fees listed as "IU-Instructional" are the instructional fees that qualify as educational costs. Those listed as "Miscellaneous" include all the non-instructional costs of the program, such as housing.

Table with 2 columns: Fee Description and Amount. Title: IU and CES Fees Paid to Indiana University. Rows include: Due March 22 to Overseas Study-Non-refundable Prepayment ($500.00), Due May 10 to IUB Bursar: OVST Instructional fees ($2,924.00), OVST Miscellaneous Fee ($935.00), OVST/IU Service Fee ($237.21), Health Insurance ($70.70), Prepayment Credit ($500.00), Total Fixed Fees Paid to Indiana University ($4,166.91).

Students will need additional funds to pay the estimated additional program costs. These will vary from student to student as they are based on individual spending habits and lifestyle choices. The dollar's value will also affect your costs.
