The Spanish homestay accommodation experience: The decision to live in a homestay will undoubtedly offer you a true Spanish living experience. You will speak Spanish at home, allowing you to practice your new skills and vocabulary, as well as provide you with a comprehensive view and understanding of the day-to-day life in a different culture.

- Your homestay may comprised of parents and children, couples without children or individuals living alone, all of which enjoy the company of others and look forward to the opportunity to share their culture. You would not be the first to go out with your homestay to tour the city or, keep in contact with them after your study abroad experience.
- Two meals will be included in the price (breakfast and dinner). Your meals will be served during the normal Spanish dining hours and you will eat Spanish food. However, to the extent possible, your homestay will take your preferences into consideration. If necessary, there are homestays that can adapt to certain dietary requirements such as those of a vegetarian or someone with food allergies, as well as those with food restrictions related to their religion.
- All of the host families will be able to offer an Internet connection with WiFi.
- If you choose, you can be housed with another student on your program.
- You will receive a set of your own house keys so that you can come and go as you please. Also, you - will be able to receive calls on your host family's land line.
